

Process Book | Jocelin Flora

Menu

		involved in the process of bringing new programs to life.	spreading the word of teh benefits behind being a donator.
Students		Educating the students on the history of glass blowing and expressing the creative medium of glass.	Posts on social media as well as posters to show the steps to join a class and program to learn all about the creative medium that is glass.
Parents		Educating on the creative medium of glass as well as the saftey and enviromental aspect behind the art of glassblowing.	Join the UrbanGlass mailing list to always be updated on what is happening in the organization, potentially become a member of UrbanGlass, give donations to help the organizations programs thrive.
Museums		Increase the organizations awareness and mission goals for the art community.	Help sponser activities for all ages to participate in that is focused on UrbanGlass. The activities would focus on the creative medium of glass like with glass mosaics.
Professionals		Increase the awareness of the creative medium of glass to the art community as well as spread the word of the good effect UrbanGlass has on the art community	Teach glassblowing classes ranging from beginner to expert. Make and provide some glass pieces that can be sold and shown as the expression of the creative medium of glass.